Message from Robert Murray Stamp Shop

Our last live online auction worked very successfully, and we again learned much from the process. This auction is of a more regular size, and includes a wide variety of interesting material.

We are still producing a printed paper catalogue in the traditional style, even though it is an online auction. Regular customers will notice a change in the style; whereas previously we produced a printed list and converted that to an online version, this has been reversed – the catalogue is now written online, and has been converted from that to this booklet. It is my hope that as many people as possible will start to see the internet listings as the prime source, and that reliance on paper copies will reduce. Let us know please if you'd be happy to stop being sent printed catalogues.

The following notes are quite lengthy, but I'd encourage you to read them carefully.

Bob Murray

VIEWING; There is no viewing available at our premises due to current Scottish Government regulations. The full catalogue with illustrations is online on EasyLive Auctions (www.easyliveauction.com/auctioneers/robertmurraystampshop). Please look at these images first.

ONLINE VIEWING; Every lot is illustrated in our listings online on EasyLive. Some lots have multiple pictures, and we intend to also have a few short videos on our Facebook page. Note that clicking on the initial image will in most cases give you a magnified view. We will be adding to the bank of images between now and auction day. We'll consider any requests - if online you can use the "Lot Enquiry" button.

Some lots are on stockcards, and these sometimes show a very fine horizontal line when scanned.

Some lots are on stockleaves which may have interleaving partly obscuring the image. Please read the descriptions, as some lots only have sample pictures.

ESTIMATES; In the catalogue our estimate now gives a range of prices. As a guide, the lower estimate is often about two-thirds of what we would previously have used as a single estimate. This lower estimate is also the starting price for each lot, below which it will not be sold. All estimates, bids, and invoices, are in pounds Sterling (£, GBP).

BIDDING; There is a choice of three different methods.

{1} Online in advance. When looking at our catalogue on the EasyLive platform you can leave an "Autobid", which is your maximum bid. As with a traditional "postal bid" the lot will be bought for you as cheaply as other bids allow. If there are two equal Autobids, the first one received will win the lot. There is an option with Autobids to choose "Plus One" (" +1 ") which means that if your bid is tied, the system will increase your top bid by one increment.

{2} Online live. While the auction is in progress (starting at 5:00pm) you can click the "Bid Now" button to bid - the current selling price and the next increment will be shown. The screen will show you if you are the current top bidder. You must be registered in advance with EasyLive Auction.

Note that two or more people might click their "Bid Now" buttons within a fraction of a second of each other. It is the first to be recognised by the auction platform that will count. Please bid early, bid decisively, and remember that a slight delay can cost you the lot. The lot is sold when I, the auctioneer, say it is sold. Any bid received by the system even a fraction of a second after that will be cancelled.

{3} Absentee bidding - that is lodging bids in advance directly with us. This can be done by post, by email, by phone, or by written bid left with us. We then handle the bids on your behalf during the auction.

ONLINE FEES; When you register for each auction, you have the option of two fees. You have to choose in advance !

{a} Single £3 up-front fee, or

{b} 3% + v.a.t. added to your purchases with your invoice.

BID STEPS; Bidding increments are fixed online, and are the same as those listed in this catalogue. The exceptions are some categories (generally the UK postage lots, and gold coins) where the auctioneer can override the pre-set bid steps during the live auction.

INVOICING; Online bidders; Fairly soon after the sale has concluded, you should get an email telling you of your purchases. Action at this point is that you should click on the appropriate icon - either asking for a "shipping quote" or informing us that you wish to collect. Do not pay at this point.

Absentee bidders; we will get in touch individually, but please be patient, as this may take several days.

SALE RESULTS; Prices realised appear against each lot listing as soon as the lot is sold, and stay on the system thereafter.

METHODS OF PAYMENT (in order of preference);

{1} Bank transfer (in Sterling from a UK bank). Details will be shown on your invoice.

{2} Debit or credit card, with the best way of doing this being by phone.

{3} Cheque (in Sterling drawn on UK bank)

{4} Cash, for customers collecting their purchases (see "Deliveries").

DELIVERIES; We will steadily work through all the deliveries, but please be aware that, with a sale of this size (number of lots and physical bulk) this could easily take us a full two weeks.

At the time of writing, it is not permissible for customers to come to our shop to collect their lots. If it looks like regulations might change to allow this, you can pay for your purchases and ask us to store them for you (please contact us to enquire further).

TELEPHONES; Our phones are not staffed full-time. If you don't get an answer, our answering machine will tell you the hours at which the phones will be answered.

TIMED AUCTION

One week after this live sale, we have a Timed “Collectors’ Auction”, with the lots ending at 30 second intervals from 1:00pm onwards on Monday 22nd March. There is no printed catalogue for this auction of 1,000+ lots, all the action taking place online. A separate leaflet about this accompanies this catalogue.

FUTURE AUCTIONS

We will take stock again after these two auctions, but our general plan is to have auctions about every three months. Please get in touch if you have material you would like to include for sale. Regulations presently make it not permissible for us to have in-person consultations with vendors, but hopefully restrictions will start to loosen over the coming months. Please do not ask us to bend the regulations – we will always lean to the side of caution.
