 Auction Starts at 5.00pm A Message from Robert Murray Stamp Shop

So much has changed since we held our last public auction in February that this almost feels like starting a new business. As a “paused” shielded person, the Covid-19 situation restricts my activities more than it does for many of the population. I am being cautious, and will only think of meeting customers and handling material in “the old ways” once I am sure that everything is safe. There are therefore no traditional public auctions planned. This auction will be conducted online and comprises material that was consigned to us before the lock-down came into force.

As an introductory measure we are still producing a printed paper catalogue in the traditional style, even though it is an online auction. All customers who can participate online should do so, and this format will hopefully assist some people in making that switch. The following notes are quite lengthy, but I'd encourage you to read them carefully. Finally, my thanks to all our customers who have shown their patience over recent months.
Bob Murray

VIEWING; There is no open viewing. The full catalogue with illustrations is online on EasyLive Auctions (www.easyliveauction.com/auctioneers/robertmurraystampshop). Please look at these images first.

Any customers who do view lots in person will only be able to do so by appointment, and having provided a list in advance of the lots they want to see.

Current Government restrictions (as at 10 November) mean that nobody should travel into Edinburgh from other council areas. (Adequate face coverings must be worn on our premises at all times, viewers must follow staff instructions, and you should not view if you feel in any way unwell or have any Coronavirus symptoms.)

ONLINE VIEWING; Every lot is illustrated in our listings online on EasyLive. Some lots have multiple pictures, and we're looking at the possibility of also having a few short videos on our Facebook page. Note that clicking on the initial image will in most cases give you a magnified view.

We will be adding to the bank of images between now and auction day. We'll consider any requests - if online you can use the "Lot Enquiry" button.

Some lots are on stockcards, and these sometimes show a very fine horizontal line when scanned.

Some lots are on stockleaves which may have interleaving partly obscuring the image. Please read the descriptions, as some lots only have sample pictures.

ESTIMATES; In the online catalogue (and in future in printed catalogues) our estimate will give a range of prices. As a guide, the lower estimate is often about two-thirds of our printed single estimate, and is the starting price for each lot, below which it will not be sold.

CONTINUES on page 33.

AUCTION STARTS LIVE ONLINE AT FIVE O'CLOCK

Collections and Mixed Lots.

- 1 Massive lot of new issues almost as received from well-known new issues retailer from early 1986 to the end of 2005, with a large reduction in coverage late in 2004. Seems to cover most of the Commonwealth u.m. commemoratives, definitives and miniature sheets, plus some foreign – the first three random packages inspected contained AAT, Australia, Bahamas, Bangladesh, Barbados, Bermuda, Botswana, British Virgin Is., Brunei, Cayman, China PRC (inc. FDCs, and often as separate packages), Cyprus, Falkland, Fiji, Hong Kong, India, Kiribati, Lesotho, Macau, Malaysia, Nauru, New Zealand, Norfolk Is., Pakistan, PNG, Pitcairn, Singapore, Solomon, S.Africa, S.Georgia, Sri Lanka, Sweden, Tokelau, Trinidad & Tobago, Tristan, UN Vienna, and Vanuatu. We've made a tally of the packages (which are not in order) and estimate that over 95% of the distributions are present here, and that the total retail cost (excl. postage) has been over £20,000. There is also some loose material where stamps and invoices do not easily match. Some of the distributions are still all sealed in packets, some have been opened (and therefore the possibility that some issues may have been removed). £3,500.

| 213 | 1852-57 ½d deep rose on machine-made wove paper. An excellent fresh and attractive mint example, with full original gum, hinged, and with four good to large margins. Top grade example of a scarce stamp. SG 17, cat.£1,000. £300. |
| 214 | 1852-57 6d Prince Albert used. Four margins (wide at left), indistinct cancel, small crease at upper-left, and slight thinning at centre on reverse. We would class this as greenish grey on machine-made medium wove paper, so probably SG 10 cat.£1,200. .. £100. |
| 215 | 1859 1c rose imperforate single unused (no gum) with four good margins, the left margin extending to include just a skim of the marginal inscription. BPA certificate (1982) states “genuine”, mentions an offset on reverse (which is hardly visible), but doesn’t note the tiny amount of toning (which most people wouldn’t mention). (Gibbons list a pair of these as SG 30a, cat.£4,750) £300. |
| 216 | 1859 1c rose fine and fresh mint with full gum, mounted, centred high to left, tone spots on a couple of perf teeth, and teeth at left possibly “tidied”. SG 29 cat.£425. .. 50. |

| 224 | 1897 Jubilee complete mint set (16). An excellent set, notable for its fresh colours, bright appearance, and fresh gum. The values to 50c are mixed m.m./l.m.m./u.m. and the only fault to mention is a short perf on 5c, and the dollar values are listed now individually; $1 m.m. quite well centred, $2 unmounted mint centred towards left, $3 m.m. centred to right, $4 m.m. well centred and with horizontal bend, $5 l.m.m. centred a little high to left and minor adhesion marks on gum. - UK Postage Material: a huge accumulation of material being a standing order from Royal Mail over some decades. Many are still in envelopes as delivered (often with delivery notes), while some have been broken down out of their envelopes. We can identify that for approx. 1969-74 the order was for 1 set of fourblocks (defins and commems), and 1 presentation pack. Somewhere between then and 1979 it changes to 1 set of fourblocks and 1 set of gutter sixblocks. The longest identifiable order was from 1986 to 2004, when it was for (commems) 1 set, 1 set 4-blocks, 1 set cylinder 6-blocks, 1 set gutter pairs, 1 p.pack, and (defins) 1 set 4-blocks and 2 booklets. Somewhere between 2004 and 2007 the order is reduced to 1 set and 1 m.s., and this carries on to 2019. There are also FDCs, some souvenir packs, airletters, etc.

Due to the disorder of the property (we have spent many hours getting to this stage) we cannot say if the run is complete, but guess that it is probably close to it. We estimate the total face value to be in the region of £15,500. £8,500.

--; a printed hingeless album 1971-94, then album pages 1995-2008, stockleaves and stockcards with later to 2018 which may not be complete. Also a bundle of pres. packs, booklets, and four year books. Rather disorganised. Face value expected to be in the region of £2,000. £1,100.

--; two stockbooks – one of NVIs (mainly 1st, some 2nd and E) with face stated by vendor as £525 (at pre-March rates), other of mainly 40p+ values, face stated £310. Total face £835. No defins included. £500.

--; presentation packs 2001-6 and some earlier in three albums, 2002-3 year books, and Millennium colln. of p.packs. Face value c.£600. £320.

THE END OF THE SALE

© Robert Murray 2020

A Buyer's Premium of 12% (vat-inclusive) will be added to all sale prices.

BIDDING; There is a choice of three different methods.

{1} Online in advance. When looking at our catalogue on the EasyLive platform you can leave an "Autobid", which is your maximum bid. As with a traditional "postal bid" the lot will be bought for you as cheaply as other bids allow. If there are two equal Autobids, the first one received will win the lot. There is an option with Autobids to choose "Plus One" (" +1 ") which means that if your bid is tied, the system will increase your top bid by one increment.

{2} Online live. While the auction is in progress (starting at 5:00pm) you can click the "Bid Now" button to bid - the current selling price and the next increment will be shown. The screen will show you if you are the current top bidder. You must be registered in advance with EasyLive Auction.

Note that two or more people might click their "Bid Now" buttons within a fraction of a second of each other. It is the first to be recognised by the auction platform that will count. Please bid early, bid decisively, and remember that a slight delay can cost you the lot. The lot is sold when I, the auctioneer, say it is sold. Any bid received by the system even a fraction of a second after that will be cancelled.

{3} Absentee bidding - that is lodging bids in advance directly with us. This can be done by post, by email, by phone, or by written bid left with us. We then handle the bids on your behalf during the auction.

ONLINE FEES; When you register for each auction, you have the option of two fees. You have to choose in advance !

{a} Single £3 up-front fee, or

{b} 3% + v.a.t. added to your purchases with your invoice.

BID STEPS; Bidding increments are fixed online, and are the same as those listed in this catalogue. The exceptions are some categories (generally the UK postage lots, and gold coins) where the auctioneer can override the pre-set bid steps during the live auction.

INVOICING; Online bidders; Fairly soon after the sale has concluded, you should get an email telling you of your purchases. Action at this point is that you should click on the appropriate icon - either asking for a "shipping quote" or informing us that you wish to collect. Do not pay at this point.

Absentee bidders; we will get in touch individually, but please be patient, as this may take several days.

SALE RESULTS; Prices realised appear against each lot listing as soon as the lot is sold, and stay on the system thereafter.

METHODS OF PAYMENT (in order of preference);

{1} Bank transfer (in Sterling from a UK bank). Details will be shown on your invoice.

{2} Debit or credit card, with the best way of doing this being by phone.

{3} Cheque (in Sterling drawn on UK bank)

{4} Cash, for customers collecting their purchases.

DELIVERIES; We will steadily work through all the deliveries, but please be aware that, with a sale of this size (number of lots and physical bulk) this could easily take us a full two weeks.

Customers collecting lots from our shop will be offered a time slot. We will have their lots checked and ready before they arrive. (Customers must wear an adequate face covering, and follow any other requirements which might be in place.)

TELEPHONES; Our phones are not staffed full-time. If you don't get an answer, our answering machine will tell you the hours at which the phones will be manned.

FUTURE AUCTIONS

We are working towards having our next live online auction around early February 2021. We already have a fair amount of material in hand for this sale.

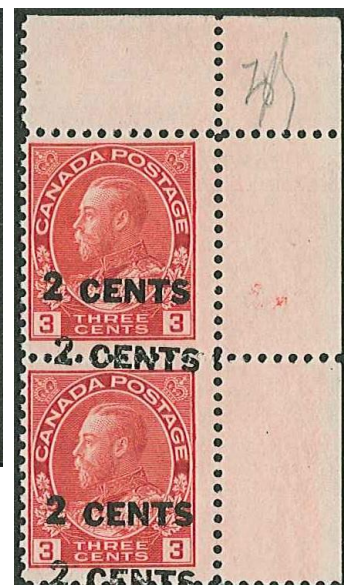

Following that, there is the possibility that we will run a "Timed Auction", with large numbers of lots, many of which will be more modestly priced single items and selections. This would run for several hours, and have a lot closing every thirty seconds.
